D. A. R. ENTHUSIASTS STATE REGENT

Mrs. John Laidlaw Buel, state regent of the Connecticut D. A. R., was entertained at luncheon Thursday afternoon by Faith Trumbull chapter of the D. A. R. of this city. The luncheon was held at the Community house on Church street, covers being laid for 55. The state regent, Mrs. Buel, Mrs. A. N. H. Vaughn, regent of Faith Trumbull chapter and the officers of the chapter were seated at the head table. The tables were prettily decorated with cut flowers.

The menu was as follows:
Grape Fruit with Cherries
Chicken Pie
Mashed Potatoes
Stuffed Tomato Salad
Peas
Rice
Jelly
Cake
Coffee
Ice Cream

Following the menu Mrs. Buel spoke on state's work and also spoke of the recent trip she and Mrs. Minor of Waterford, the president general, made to England and France.

Mrs. Buel spoke of a number of projects which the state D. A. R. has underway. She also spoke of the beautiful painting which the national D. A. R. organization is planning to present to the War Museum in France. The painting is now at Washington where it is waiting the approval of the national D. A. R. committee.

Mrs. Buel also told of the plan to help endow a chair of American history at Harvard college. She spoke of the national organization plan to erect a memorial fountain at Plymouth, Mass. The contract for the construction of the fountain has already been let and it will be erected as soon as the people of Plymouth decide upon a definite location. Another project spoke of by Mrs. Buel is the state chapter's effort to provide scholarships at the Americanization college at Springfield which fits students for Americanization work.

During the afternoon Mrs. Reuben P. Potter rendered a solo. A rising vote of thanks was given Mrs. Buel for her interesting address and a similar vote of thanks was extended Mrs. Will L. Stearns, chairman of the committee in charge of the afternoon. The decorations were in charge of the ways and means committee. Mrs. H. R. Kind chairman.

A brief business meeting followed the luncheon and during the business meeting several new names were proposed for membership.

The hostesses were Mrs. A. N. H. Vaughn, Mrs. B. P. Bishop, Mrs. A. A. Browning, Mrs. W. Tyler Browne, Mrs. Channing M. Huntington, Mrs. Roy D. Judd, Mrs. Henry H. Pettis, Mrs. Elsie E. Rogers, Mrs. Louis A. Wheeler, and Mrs. William H. Dawley.

The waitresses were Miss Helen Browning, Miss Alice Browning, Miss Barbara Allen, Mrs. Raymond B. Sherman and Mrs. Snow.

For Itching Eczema, Old Sores and Piles

"I guarantee my ointment," says Peterson of Buffalo, "to cure eczema, to stop the itching at once, and any reliable druggist will cheerfully refund your money if PETERSON'S OINTMENT doesn't do everything I say it will do."

William A. Carley of Franklin, N. Y., is surely a wise man. He writes: "I used PETERSON'S OINTMENT on a little boy suffering terribly with eczema. It did the work."

Then there is Alex. Loutlet, a brave veteran of Buffalo, who is glad to write as follows: "I had an old sore on my leg for many years. The best doctor failed. PETERSON'S OINTMENT entirely healed the sore quickly. And from over in Canada comes a letter from A. Blockley, stating: 'The best thing I ever hit for itching piles is PETERSON'S OINTMENT.' A big box for 35 cents. Mail orders filled by Peterson Ointment Co., Inc., Buffalo, N. Y."

ting in debt to me again and I told her that there was no excuse for it." He insisted that the accounts were not transferred to him in settlement of his services but that the money went to reduce the estate's indebtedness to him.

Attorney Hull showed Mr. Geary a bank book belonging to Mrs. Bentley, showing the transfer signed by Mrs. Bentley. He asked Mr. Geary in whose custody the book was before the transfer was made and he replied that it had been in Mrs. Bentley's custody.

"If Mrs. Bentley wanted money, why didn't she draw it? Why was it necessary for her to give you orders for the money?" he was asked.

"I don't know why, unless it was because she wanted my check for it," he replied. But, anyway, that's the way it was done," said the witness.

The witness was asked about the withdrawal by Mrs. Bentley of $198.81 from the bank in October, 1916, and who got the money. "I don't know who received it," was the reply.

He was asked about a withdrawal of $250 in June of the same year. "I see it there is only one way in which we can fulfill the requirements of true Americanism, and that is to follow the teachings of the great Son of God, who laid down the great law of life, when he said: 'Whoever ye would that men should do to you; do ye even so to them.' In other words, the following of the Golden Rule will enable you to be true Americans, and also bring to you the happiness you desire."

After the talk, Boys Secretary David led the employees in a series of gymnastic exercises much to the pleasure of all participating. A similar meeting will be conducted each Thursday noon.

SCHOOL CHILDREN COMPOSITIONS ON FIRE PREVENTION

The compositions are being written at the suggestion of Edward J. Graham, superintendent of schools, in connection with Fire Prevention Day which occurred last Friday.

The best composition in each room will be selected and sent to the office of the school superintendent not later than Monday, Oct. 17, and a few of the best compositions will be published in a letter to the teachers Sept. 19.

Y. M. C. A. NOON MEETING AT WEST SIDE SILK MILL

The first noon shop meeting of the season under Y. M. C. A. auspices was held Thursday at the plant of the West Side silk mill.

A very large number of the employees were present, and all seemed to enjoy the brief innovation at the noon hour. Several lively songs were sung, and a brief talk on True Americanism was given.

To Relieve Catarrh, Catarrhal Deafness And Head Noises
Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness, or who are growing hard of hearing and have head noises, will be glad to know that this distressing affliction can usually be successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that in many instances has effected complete relief after other treatments have failed. Sufferers who could scarcely hear have had their hearing restored to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know of someone who is troubled with head noises or catarrhal deafness, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you may have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows:

Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Parmitin (cubic strength). Take this home and add to it 1 pint of hot water and a little granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmitin is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are nearly always quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form, or distressing or rumbling hissing sounds in their ears, should give this recipe a trial.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

TO BEGIN ARMISTICE DAY
Armistice Day, November 11th, has been set by the National Red Cross as the date for the formal opening of the fifth annual roll call, which will be carried out in the Norwich district as it will be in all other places.

In connection with the preliminary roll call plans, special attention has been directed to the different kinds of membership in the Red Cross organization and the importance of chapter work in securing the enrollment of other than the full memberships, for which the dues are one dollar. Of the annual membership dues, fifty cents of each case remain with the chapter and fifty cents go into the National Red Cross treasury. Out of each contributing membership (five dollars dues) the chapter retains $4.50 and the remaining fifty cents go to headquarters. Out of each sustaining membership (ten dollars dues) $9.50 remains with the chapter and the other fifty cents goes to headquarters. It thus will be seen that under the division of membership fees, one contributing membership will be worth as much to the chapter as nine annual and that one sustaining membership will mean, so far as chapter finances are concerned, the same as nineteen annual memberships.

There are in every community, individuals who will wish to do more for the Red Cross than is involved in merely becoming an annual member, and especially those who are the rank and file of these hundreds of thousands of dollars in war fund drives it is expected that chapters will find many who are willing to become members of another class, thereby helping to provide the support which the chapters need for the carrying on of their local activities.

Sunday, Nov. 13, two days following Armistice Day, which marks the formal opening of the roll call, will be Red Cross Sunday throughout the country. On this day it is expected that all ministers of the gospel within each chapter's jurisdiction, to whom the plan commends itself, will, in connection with their church services, explain the object and aims of the Red Cross to their congregations and urge them to enroll themselves as members of the American Red Cross for the year 1922.

Chapters also are expected to enlist the same kind of assistance from fraternal and other organizations in their respective communities.

It is anticipated that one of the great outside helps to the efforts put forth by chapter workers to make the roll call a success will come through the American Legion and similar organizations of veterans. It is expected that the individual interest of the soldier boys, in having the Red Cross work for their protection, will incline them to use their organized force in every way possible to give the Red Cross the membership support which it requires. It is expected that chapters, in connection with the preliminaries for the roll call work, will seek association with the veterans' organization in each community along the most practical lines suggested by the situation in the particular locality.

GROTON WOOD CUTTING
Trial of the suit of F. A. Barnes of Groton against Edwin A. Chesbro of Groton for damages of $600 over an alleged breach of contract in the purchase of some timber, at Burnett's Corners, Groton, was begun before Judge Allen L. Brown in the superior court in New London Thursday morning. The plaintiff alleges that on Oct. 29, 1917, the defendant sold to the plaintiff some trees standing on a tract of land at Burnett's Corners under an agreement that the plaintiff had until April 30, 1919, to cut and remove the timber and until a year from that date in which to remove the lumber severed from the stump, and that violation of the agreement the defendant removed and converted to his own use 50 cords of wood which the plaintiff has cut.

Testimony for the plaintiff was completed at 12:15 when the plaintiff rested and in the afternoon the defense was proceeding with its side of the case.

COMPARES STENOGRAPHER'S NOTE WITH ATTY. GEARY'S TESTIMONY

Attorney John C. Geary finished his testimony Thursday morning in New London in the hearing on the appeal from probate by the Bentley heirs of his accounts as agent for Mrs. Julia C. Bentley, administratrix of the estate of her husband, the late Andrew J. Bentley. Mr. Geary has been testifying since the first day of the hearing, which was started about a month and a half ago.

His testimony Thursday morning concerned an item of $4,000 on the credit side of his account, an item of interest of $500 and four items of money which he received from Mrs. Bentley.

The hearing began with Attorney Hull asking Mr. Geary as to whether the item of $4,000 on the account included fee for services from 1903 to 1907, to which the witness replied that it did.

"Do you recollect saying that the item contained nothing for services?" asked Attorney Hull, and your reply was "Wednesday afternoon that the notes will show."

"I did not say just that," was the reply. "Well, substantially that," replied Major Hull.

Attorney Hull read from the notes of previous testimony in which Mr. Geary testified that the item in question did not embrace services.

Mr. Geary stated that the amount represented was carried to the estate by him from time to time between 1903 and 1907.

"Do you remember testifying three times in previous testimony that the amount did not include fees for services?" asked Major Hull.

"I don't know how many times I said it," was the reply. "But that does not change the figures."

"I don't ask you that. I asked if you remember saying at least three times in previous testimony that the item did not include fees for services. You remember that testimony, don't you?" asked Major Hull.

"No, no, that isn't what you meant," declared Attorney Hull.

"Oh, yes," insisted Mr. Geary.

Attorney Hull then called the attention of the witness to four items of $300, $450, $422.12 and $352 and inquired of the witness if these amounts were transferred to him by Mrs. Bentley in settlement for services.

"They were not," replied Mr. Geary. "They were for checks which I gave her."

"All four?" asked Major Hull.

"No, you know better than that," hotly retorted the witness. "Only one was a transfer."

"What was that for?" asked Attorney Hull.

"It was to reduce the indebtedness of the estate to me," was the answer. "That transfer was made to me a few days after I had called Mrs. Bentley's attention to the fact that the estate was getting into debt to me again and I told her that there was no excuse for it." He insisted that the accounts were not transferred to him in settlement of his services but that the money went to reduce the estate's indebtedness to him.

Attorney Hull showed Mr. Geary a bank book belonging to Mrs. Bentley, showing the transfer signed by Mrs. Bentley. He asked Mr. Geary in whose custody the book was before the transfer was made and he replied that it had been in Mrs. Bentley's custody.

"If Mrs. Bentley wanted money, why didn't she draw it? Why was it necessary for her to give you orders for the money?" he was asked.

"I don't know why, unless it was because she wanted my check for it," he replied. But, anyway, that's the way it was done," said the witness.

given by General Secretary Edwin Hill of the Y. M. C. A. The speaker said in part: "It is not a matter of the place of birth or one's color, but the place of a man's heart determines whether or not he is a true American. There are certain fundamentals that go to make a true American: first of all, a man must be absolutely true to our great Constitution if he would be a genuine American. Then one must be true to our institutions; true to the church and school, for these are some of our fundamental institutions, and we owe to them all possible loyalty. Then we must be true to the laws of the land, whether we like them or not, so long as they are on the statute book a true American will obey them. You have a perfect right to be happy, but you must also give to others the same privilege in other words you have no right to secure pleasure for yourself at the expense of another's happiness. As I see it there is only one way in which we can fulfill the requirements of true Americanism, and that is to follow the teachings of the great Son of God, who laid down the great law of life, when he said: 'Whoever ye would that men should do to you; do ye even so to them.'
